Formerly it never used to bloom into activity until about the end of the year, whereas already, in the direction of Caobang, it is causing great anxiety to the officials. A that of containing Aerated Waters, as French missionary in China says that the reason is that the Vicercy at Canton, having learned that the legislative elections are pending in France, has pushed on the pirates to make an early start, so that the receipt of disquisting rumours from Tonkin might favour the parties who were auxious to evacuate the country.

> Last night about seven o'clock raids were made almost simultaneously by two gangs of men on a couple of Chinese Clubs, one in Wellington Street and the other in Stanley Street. The raiders, who were armed, first tried to scare the people out of the Clubs by making an alarm about the police coming, and then took advantage of the stampede to appropriate all the money on the gaming tables, offering violence to any who tried to stop them. At the Stanley Street Club the plunder amounted to $46, while at the other place only $6 was obtained, together with a pair of jade-stone earrings, anatched from the ears of a woman who was in the place. The police were on the track of the thieves very speedily, and the result was that ten prisoners were brought before Mr Wodehouse to-day in connection with the affair. Six of these were charged with breaking into and stealing money from the Tez Hing Lung Club in Stanley Street, and the other four were accused of having taken part in the raid on the Wung Li Chiu Club in Wellington Street. In the latter case Mr Caldwell defended the prisoners. Both cases were remanded.

We hear that the Hon. W. M. Deane returns to the Colony early in November, to resume his duties as Captain Superintendent of Police. Although Captain Deane went away ostensibly on leave for a short period, his return to his old post is something of a surprise, as there was a general impression that he had made up his mind to give it up. Considering the length of time for which he has held the office and the undoubtedly efficient service which he has rendered to the Colony, there was perhaps some reason for his thinking that England has annexed Union Island, one he had been, whether inadvertently or promotion and left neglected in a siding,although the command of the Police is by no means an unimportant post, nor a badly paid one, At all events, the likelihood of his resuming his old place was rebeen rife as to the selection of a successor. Major-General Gordon, who has been acting Captain Superintendent of The results to date of the Conseils Gener- Police since Captain Deane left the colony, others names were also mentioned as those of persons 'in the running.' There would doubtless have been considerable difficulty in selecting a suitable man, but that difficulty apparently is avoided, for the present at least, by the return of Captain Deane.

A GENTLEMAN who has just returned from Java informs us of an extraordinary occurrence that took place there a few days ago. For some time a Kling, with a small boy, a bear, and a monkey, had been travelling through the different villages, and had succeaded in amassing in a few months about 1,200 guilders. Some days ago he was found with his throat cut, and the boy and bear lying murdered beside him. The monkey was discovered up a tree alive. The bodies were taken to the nearest station, along with the monkey, which clung to the neck of the man who caught it. During the examination a large crowd assembled, when the monkey suddenly left the man he was with, rushed furiously at another man who had joined the crowd, and seized him by the calf of the leg. The suspicions of the police were aroused; they arrested the man, and discovered upon him a considerable amount of money for which he could not account. They then searched his house, and found the balance of the money of which he had robbed the unfortunate Kling .- Penang

THE SPEAMBOAT COMPANY AND INSURANCE RISKS. To the Editor of the 'CHINA MAIL.

Sin,-Your correspondent 'Insurance' endeavours to make out that the isteamers of the Hongkong, Canton and Macao Steamboat Company are not such a good risk as several shareholders maintained they were at a meeting of the Company ield on Saturday. After, however, making full allowance for the dangers of the river he alludes to. I think it cannot be denied that the figures read out by Mr Dodwell prove that the risk has been a very good and a very profitable one to the insurance companies concerned. The distance between Hongkong and Canton is small. is gone over so often that almost every inch it is known, and although occasional grounding takes place the risk of a total collapse is small. Let the Chairman and those who think lik him put it to themselves whether as merchants they would, on finding that they had paid $623,000 for premia and that during 24 years there had only been claims for $87,000, be inclined to continue paying premia which were so manifestly disproportionate to the risk of loss. Of course hese figures prove first of all, not that the Company should stop insuring, but them. that the Insurance Companies ought to reduce their premia. It is rather a risky thing for a Company with a small floot to effect its own insurance, as one big losa would give it a great shake. Mr Handerson's compromise therefore seemed very fair, and if the principle he enun

MATCH-MAKERS.

" HOW LOVERS ARE BEFOOLED. In The North China Daily News an ingenious author writes, with unconcealed surprise, about the Chinese Custom of Match-making. He appears to regard the profession of a match-maker with astonishment, and to believe that marriages are made in Europe by the young people themselves. Then the match-maker rejoices greatly, as one who has landed a huge fish after a doubtful struggle. The pleasure of this success will never leave her memory. But, although all the ladies of the neighbourhood know all about it, and have known all about it from the first. Blanche and Thomas, by a happy provision of nature, continue to be unconscious.
